

It has been great not getting annoying telemarketing calls and I do not want to start getting them because some out of state company is challenging our law. Please keep the law! Thanks for listening.